Self Guided Tours

Tetons & Yellowstone

- Grand Teton National Park:
 - Day Hikes:
 - Option 1: Hidden Falls — best bang for your buck
 - Take the shuttle boat across Jenny Lake ($20 round trip, $12 one way) and hike .5 miles to Hidden Falls

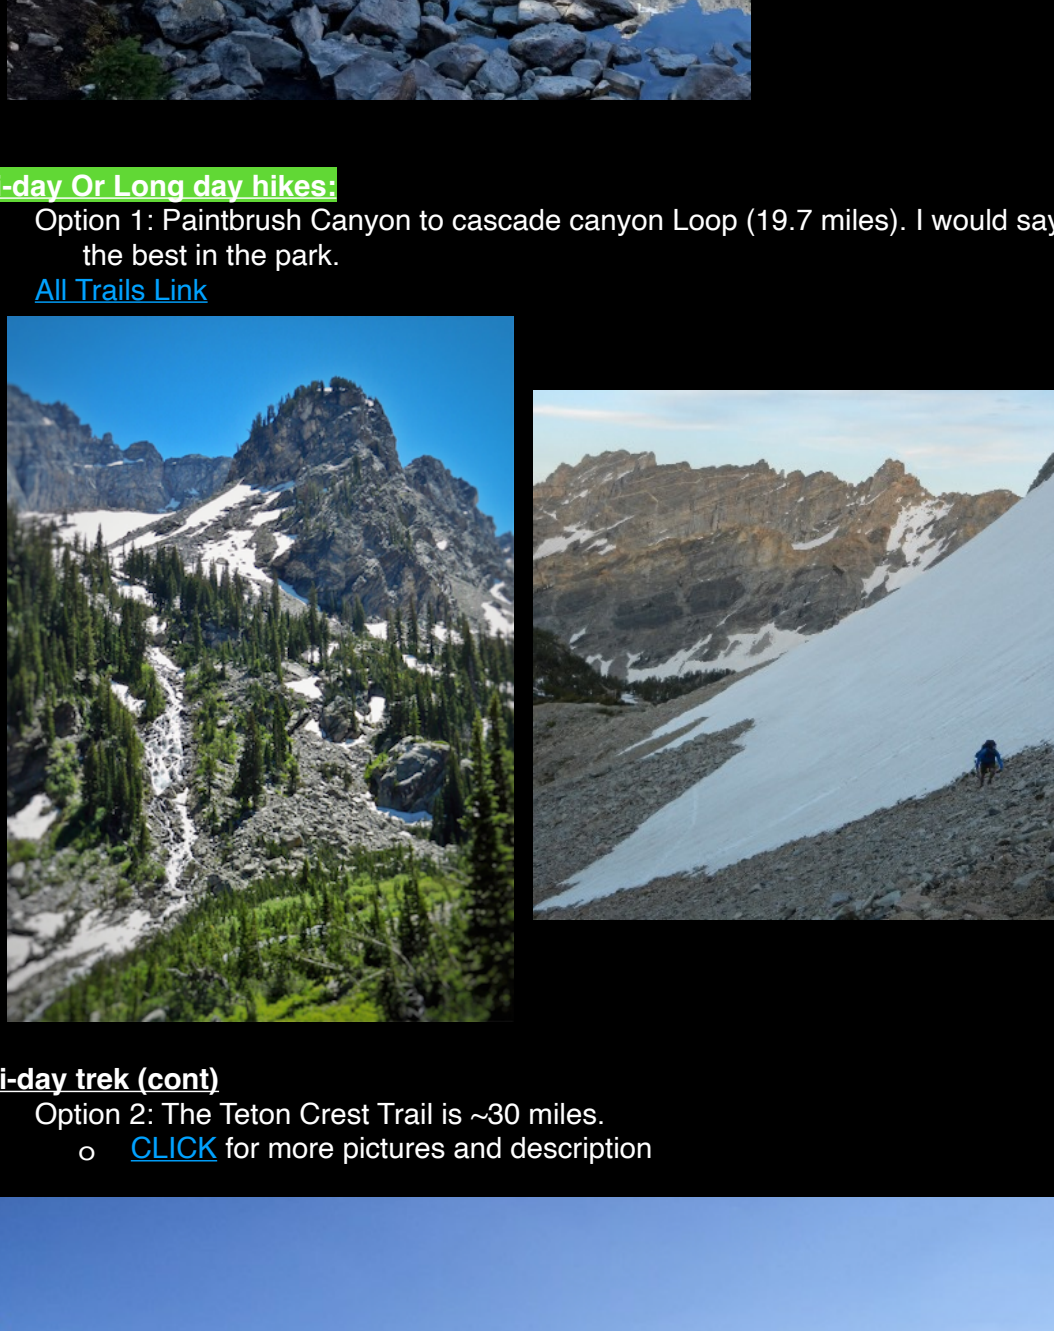

- Hike past the falls (.5 mile) up to inspiration point for some great views.

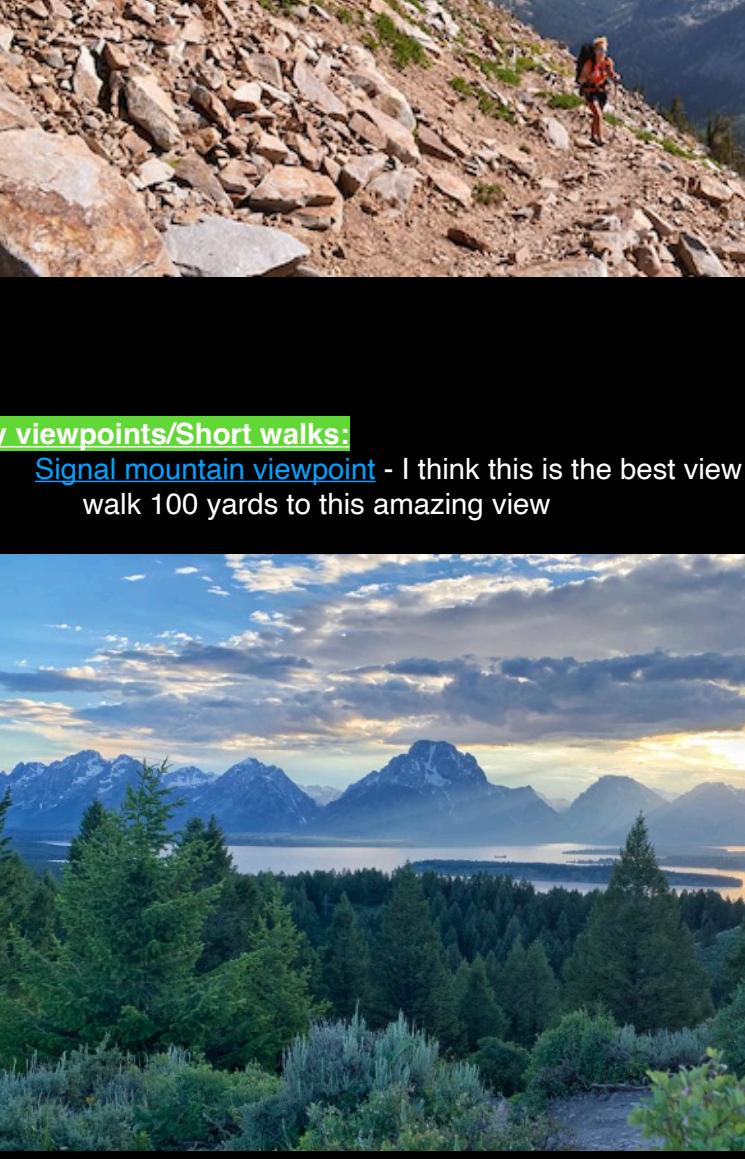

- Keep hiking past inspiration point into cascade canyon for more amazing views. Hike as far as you'd like and turn around.

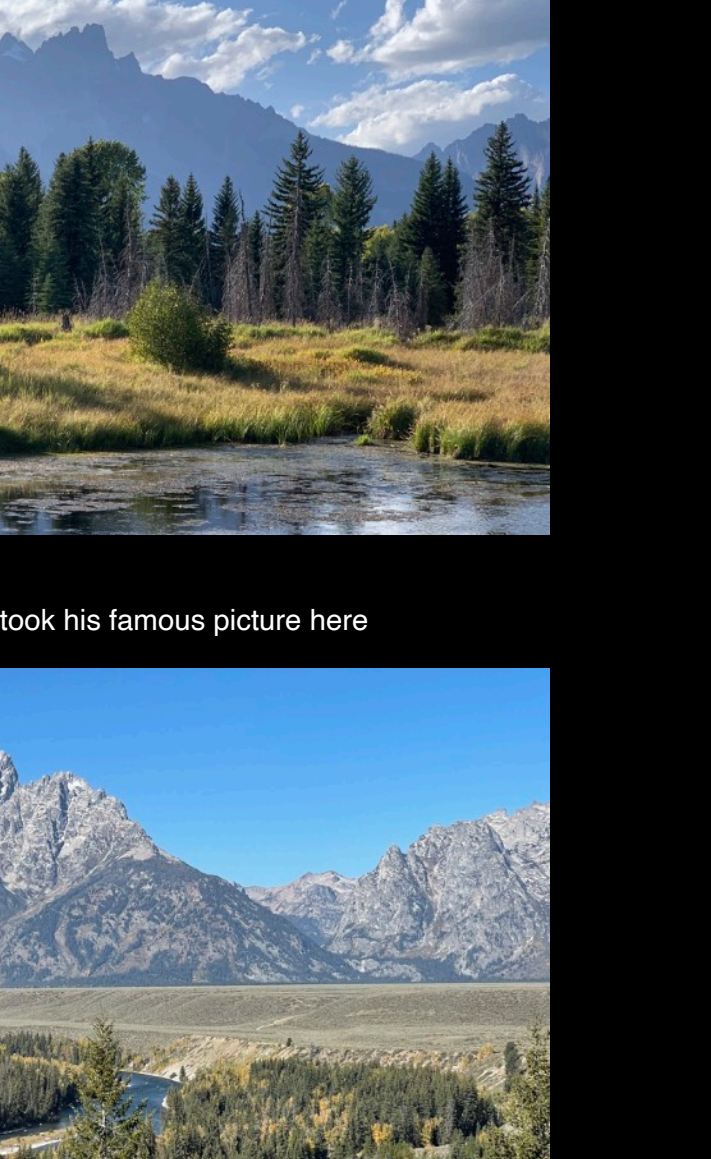

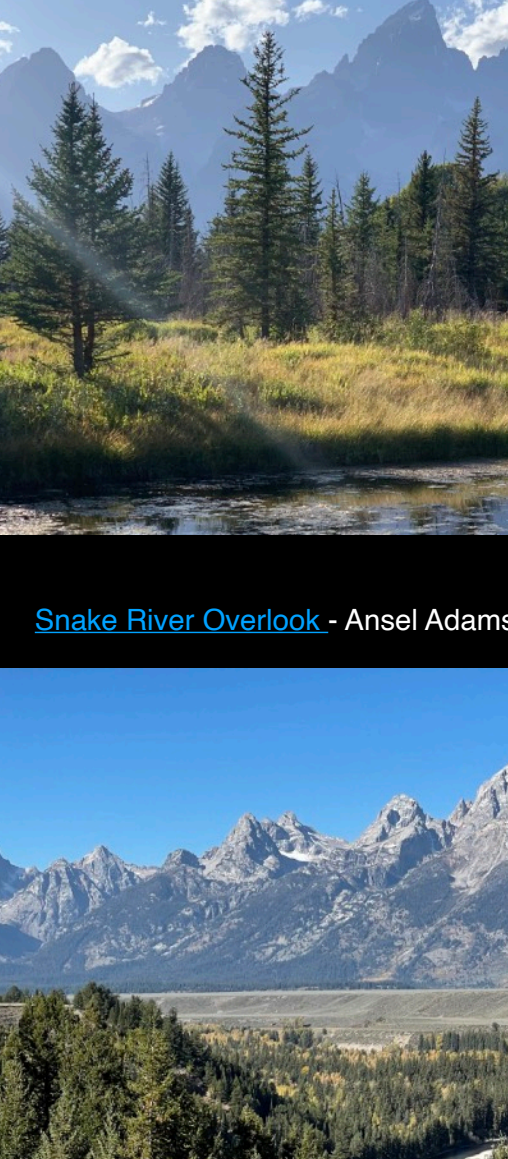

- Trail Map

- Day Hikes (cont):
 - Option 2: Delta Lake
 - In my opinion this is one of the most beautiful places in the park. 8 Miles roundtrip and ~2300ft of elevation gain
 - All Trails Link

- Multi-day Or Long day hikes:
 - Option 1: Paintbrush Canyon to cascade canyon Loop (19.7 miles). I would say the best in the park.
 - All Trails Link

- Multi-day trek (cont)
 - Option 2: The Teton Crest Trail is ~30 miles.
 - CLICK for more pictures and description

- Easy viewpoints/Short walks:
 - Signal mountain viewpoint - I think this is the best view in the park. Park and walk 100 yards to this amazing view

- Schwabacher Landing - a short walk to great views of the Tetons

- Snake River Overlook - Ansel Adams took his famous picture here

- Mormon row - Very popular but well worth it

- Colter Bay - Check out Lake Shore Trail for Jackson's version of a beach

- Jenny Lake Overlook

- String Lake walk - Park at the String Lake Trailhead to go on an easy, beautiful walk along the lake

1.Yellowstone National Park:

- Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone
 - My favorite place in Yellowstone. There are many different places to view the canyon. Drive around and stop at your favorite spots.
 - My favorite viewpoint: Artist Point - pictured below

- Midway Geyser Basin -
 - Option 1: Head to Midway Geyser Basin and hike along the boardwalk to check out Grand Prismatic and Excelsior Geyser Crater.
 - Option 2: Grand Prismatic Spring Overlook — See the view from above as shown below.
